2. 9th Air Base at Milovice

The airfield at Milovice is the former base of the 41st Air Regiment; it now houses the 9th Air Base. The airport is being enlarged and rebuilt. The runways are concrete, and the hangars and workshops are new. For a plan of the airfield, see Attachment A. Commanding Officer is Air Colonel Jan Kolar, who is 55 years old and expects to be retired in the near future.

3. Air Transport Regiment at Prague-Kbely (051/178)

This air regiment consists of three squadrons and is commanded by Lt. Colonel Sedlak (fnu).

- a. The First Squadron consists of 11 Dakotas (DC-3) and is commanded by Staff Captain Fuerst (fnu), a former RAF officer.
- b. The Second Squadron has 6 JU-52s (three-engine planes).
- c. The Third Squadron, a courier squadron, is made up of an unknown number of Ansons, British twin-engine planes, Caps, Pipers, and Zlins.

4. Artillery Squadron

25X1

- a. The Artillery Squadron [] is stationed at Plzen (N50/L04) and is under the direct command of the Ministry of National Defense. Commanding Officer of the squadron is Staff Captain of Artillery V. Mejda.
- b. The squadron is made up of 20 Piper Cubs, 6 Caps, and 2 Bückers. Each plane is equipped with a radio set which operates on batteries. Every artillery unit in the Army must go on maneuvers with this squadron at least once a year. Eleven artillery lieutenants with elementary air training are attached to this squadron.

5. Fighter Regiment Letce Vasatko
